Allocation and payment

As confirmation of the allocation of new shares subscribed without subscription rights, a settlement note will be sent to the subscriber. Subscribed and allocated new shares must be paid in cash using the Bankgiro payment slip attached to the settlement note.

For information regarding Midsummer, the Rights Issue, notifications of allocation, payment, and delivery of shares, see the Information Document, which is available at Midsummer's website, www.midsummer.se, Swedbank's website, www.swedbank.se/prospekt and SB1 Markets' website, www.sb1markets.com/transactions.

The undersigned has reviewed the Information Document and is aware of, and agrees to, the following:

- the subscription is binding. Only one subscription per subscriber is allowed. If a subscriber submits multiple application forms, only the form first received by Swedbank will be considered;
- no changes or additions may be made to the pre-printed text on the application form;
- as a general rule, incorrectly completed application forms or forms missing requested information will be disregarded in the Rights Issue, and subscription may therefore not take place. If Swedbank deems it practically possible and appropriate, it may supplement a application form with publicly available information when the form is incomplete or incorrectly filled out;
- the number of shares allocated may be less than the number applied for, or no shares may be allocated at all;
- in the event of an allocation of shares, the settlement note is expected to be sent on or around 22 January 2026;
- no notice will be sent to those who have not been allocated shares;
- funds must be made available in accordance with the instructions for the execution of the subscription on the date specified on the settlement note. If this does not occur, the shares may be sold to another party. If such a sale is made at a price lower than the subscription price, the person originally allocated shares in the Rights Issue may be held liable for the difference;
- subscribers using a VP account subject to specific rules for securities transactions, such as an investment savings account (ISK), must check with the bank or institution holding the account whether subscription is possible;
- information regarding the undersigned is obtained from Euroclear Sweden AB;
- subscribers whose subscription rights are held in custody accounts should not use this application form, but must instead follow the instructions of their custodian.

The undersigned authorises SB1 Markets, Swedish branch, to subscribe for shares on my/our behalf in accordance with the terms set out in the Information Document. Swedbank will carry out the administrative actions necessary to ensure that the subscribed shares are transferred to the VP account belonging to the undersigned. Furthermore, the undersigned hereby confirms having taken note of the information provided in the Information Document and on page 2 of the application form under the heading "Important Information," and that the undersigned is not, nor acting on behalf of, any person whose participation would require additional measures as set out under the heading "Important Information."
